

Are the candidates you plan to vote for pledged to end the war?

For many Americans, the crucial issue in the coming election is ending the war in Vietnam.

This is the third in a series of ads published by Peace Alert USA in newspapers from coast to coast to permit hundreds of thousands of Americans to vote on the single question: "Should Congress end the war by cutting off the funds?"

Your peace votes have had their effect in Congress. We have not yet won but we have made clear headway.

For the first time in history, the U.S. Senate voted to cut off funds for the war. (July 24)

For the first time in history, the House Foreign Affairs Committee reported out an end-the-war amendment. (July 26) Other recent votes in Congress have shown growing strength for peace.

It is important now to make sure the candidates you vote for in November are pledged to peace in Vietnam.

Write or visit your Congressman. Write or visit your candidates, both national and state. Make sure they are right on the war.

The National Peace Poll and other actions of Peace Alert USA are working to turn the tide. We ask again for your vote and your help to raise the money needed to get these ads into local newspapers.

Send your contribution to Peace Alert USA to keep this current effort going.

And make sure the candidates you vote for in November are pledged to peace in Vietnam.

Not gay in hell

BROOKLYN, N.Y. (LNS)--A Jesus freak group known as Teen Challenge has undertaken a propaganda campaign to convert young gay people by "proving," through Biblical references, that homosexuality, is immortal and perverted.

The campaign follows a pattern which has moved Jesus freaks throughout the country to attack gay people, often physically. Jesus freaks in San Francisco have repeatedly assaulted members of gay churches there.

One of the approaches used in the Teen Challenge pamphlet is blaming the oppressed for their own oppression: "The word 'gay' is a deception. Does gay describe the hours of remorse over being homosexual? Does it convey the agony of rejection?"

The pamphlet closes with the following paragraph: "You are not gay, you are miserable. You are not gay, you are polluted and filthy. You are not gay, you are snared in a world of lust and refuse to accept the love of God that can deliver you. You will not be gay in Hell, but tormented far worse than in this life."

McGovern rally

Drew students were among the crowd estimated at more than ten thousand persons attending the McGovern rally in Military Park, Newark on Monday, October 2. Representatives from the campus radio station, WERD also attended, and taped Senator McGovern's speech, which will be broadcast some time prior to the November election.

McGovern's speech, which began about 12:45 p.m. dealt mainly with criticisms of the Nixon administration and visions of a finer future for America with McGovern as president. Such a vision included mention of an Indochina pullout, tax reform, improved veteran's benefits, and an end to the corrupt administration that's concerned primarily with itself and big business instead of with the majority of the American people.

The crowd varied widely in composition, with people of all ages, sex and races present. Cheers and clapping greeted McGovern's words, and many commented on their validity. One sign carried by a crowd member read "Nixon has a secret plan to end the war--he's going to vote for McGovern.!"

Students who did not attend the rally are urged by WERD to tune in to the broadcast of McGovern's speech--time to be announced at a later date.

MILITANT by Langston Hughes

Let all who will
 Eat quietly the bread of shame.
 I cannot,
 Without complaining loud and long,
 Tasting its bitterness in my throat
 And feeling to my very soul
 It's wrong.
 For honest work
 You proffer me poor pay,
 For honest dreams
 Your spit is on my face,
 And so my fist is clenched
 Today--
 To strike your face.
